

FLORIDA GRADE-LEVEL READING CAMPAIGN

PROMISING LITERACY PRACTICES IN K-5 OUT-OF- SCHOOL-TIME PROGRAMS

STAFF TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Florida Grade-Level Reading Campaign (FGLRC), an initiative of Florida Alliance of Children's Council & Trusts (FACCT), offers an engaging in-person training based on FGLRC's 'Promising Literacy Practices in K-5 OST Programs', a document designed for K-5 OST staff and directors.

Training participants will be guided through 21 literacy practices aligned to the 7 categories of the Florida Standards for Quality Afterschool Programs. They will partake in small group discussion and activities that support these literacy practices, and will be familiarized with supporting literacy research documents and resources.

Training Details:

- Schedule a 2–3-hour training with us in your community
- Host up to 50 participants
- Fee is $500 per training course for up to 3 hours (upon signed contract), plus all travel fees (to be paid to FGLRC following training).

Clients must confirm their requested training date, secure the training location, provide all necessary A/V, and recruit all training participants.

Contact Us to Schedule:

Director of Florida Grade-Level Reading Campaign and experienced OST trainer, Jenn Faber is the point of contact for training coordination and will also serve as the on-site trainer. To inquire about FGLRC's Promising Literacy Practices Training or other FGLRC resources, please contact Jenn at jfaber@facct.com.
